The Carriage Shop, heretofore managed by Wm. H. KING will in future be conducted in the name of "SIMONTON & MYERS" who have employed said King to conduct the same. He will therefore be found, at the said shop, at all times, ready to execute all jobs in that line, that may be sent to the Shop, at the shortest notice possible.

SIMONTON & MYERS.
Houston, Mi. June 1, 1849. —2—

ROYAL EXHIBITION.

SIMONTON & MYERS are in receipt and will continue to receive a very fresh and well selected stock of goods, Mr. Simonton having just returned from Philadelphia, New York and Boston who gave his personal attention in the selection of every article they offer to market. They are old citizens of the Village & from their experience, efforts flatter themselves that the buying portion of the community will not only be pleased with the articles, but with the prices and facilities they offer. Having an eye to those who are remotely settled and who have not hitherto been supplied in their neighborhood with fresh articles at fair prices, they have purchased a very handsome stock of goods for

DR. W. A. MCKEE,
THANKFUL for past favors, will continue the practice of medicine when favored with call. Being permanently located in the town of Houston he will in all cases make his charges in accordance with the times; office third door east of the Hotel; his residence in the south east corner of the Town opposite the residence of J. T. Griffin at which place he may generally be found when not professionally engaged. Those who are laboring under afflictions of a chronic character may if they wish enter into special contract, if a cure be effected pay so much if no cure so much or nothing as the agreement may be. He would also remind his friends that he is compelled to pay his debts, and as he has once called upon them to call and settle, and they have failed to do so, he now proposes if they will settle any of his debts, it will be a favor kindly received, as he is determined that going shall be the last resort; yet his debts must be paid. Will those who are indebted to him call and see that those things are promptly attended to; the exchange of paper is a course sometimes pursued, to keep on the good side of the people, this he wishes to avoid if possible, if not he will be compelled to comply with the rules and usages of the country.

FEMALE ACADEMY.

THE present term of this Institution has commenced under favorable auspices, and from the very general and full satisfaction with the results of our labors of the last session, we indulge the hope that most of our citizens are now convinced that it is the interest of those who have daughters to educate to patronize the Academy. Pupils will be received at any period of the session, and charged only from the time they enter; but the sooner they come in the better for all concerned. The charges for board & tuition, compared with similar institutions, are very moderate. Those interested will please call and judge for themselves.
